

13TH IAAH WORLD CONGRESS ON ADOLESCENT HEALTH BEYOND AWARENESS... RESILIENCE, REIMAGINING, RESPONDING TRELAWNY, JAMAICA, MAY 13-15, 2026

WORKSHOPS

8:30 AM - 10:00 AM

- Richard Churchill: Putting Policy into Practice: how to implement the IAAH Policy on Education & Training of Healthcare Professionals in your area
- Vonetta Nurse: Fix My Food: Empowering Youth Advocacy for Healthier Food Systems

ORAL PRESENTATIONS

8:30 AM - 10:00 AM

Clinical Care

- Guisella Magaly Ascate Kana: Strategy for the prevention, detection, and management of HIV in indigenous communities of the Peruvian Amazon, with an emphasis on adolescents and pregnant women
- Imelda Coyne: Expressed anxieties in adolescent type 1 diabetes care: A content analysis of adolescent-caregiver clinical consultations.
- Ana Virginia González : Valoración del estado nutricional en adolescentes con y sin VIH en un centro público de referencia pediátrico de Uruguay, 2024.
- Syed Hubbe Ali: Mainstreaming emerging adolescent health & wellbeing concerns including mental health, injuries and addressing gender-based violence and adolescent HIV AIDS
- Chipso Ashley Nyamayaro: Factors Influencing Referral Uptake in an Adolescent Health Check-up Program in Zimbabwe

Sexual Health and Pregnancy

- Mariano Aizpurua: Sociodemographic and health care approach analysis to pregnant girls and adolescents under 15 years old in 4 provinces of Argentina in 2023 and 2024.
- Katherine Anderson: Short term Outcome of neonates born to adolescent versus adult mothers at the Spanish Town Hospital, Jamaica: 2023
- Hannah Kabelka: A qualitative study on intergenerational dialogues in rural and urban Kenya: Exploring family roles, tensions, and transformative potential for SRHR education
- Godfrey Kangaude: Adolescent Abortion Care Trajectories and Safety in Ethiopia, Malawi, and Zambia – A Comparative Mixed Methods Study
- Navideh Noori: Modeling the Impact of Scaling Up Postpartum Contraception Among Adolescents

BREAK

10:00 AM - 10:15 AM

DAY 3 • MAY 15

13TH IAAH WORLD CONGRESS ON ADOLESCENT HEALTH BEYOND AWARENESS... RESILIENCE, REIMAGINING, RESPONDING TRELAWNY, JAMAICA, MAY 13-15, 2026

PLENARY

10:15 AM - 12:30 PM

No Borders for the Mind: Adolescent Mental Health in a Changing World

Moderators: Risa Turetsky and Melissa Kang

- María del Carmen Calle Dávila - Mental Health Challenges in Adolescents in a Globalised World
- Geoffrey Walcott - Behind the Mask: Rethinking Mental Health in Young Men
- Jon Leon Walker - My story My strength - a young man's journey with mental health

Closing Remarks

LUNCH

12:30 PM - 1:45 PM

ORAL PRESENTATIONS

1:45 PM - 3:15 PM

Mental Health

- Curt Hagquist: Do self-reported psychosomatic symptoms in early adolescence predict subsequent psychiatric diagnoses? A Swedish registry-survey linkage study
 - Abigail Harrison: Impact of a psychoeducational intervention on gender norms and mental health outcomes in Jamaican adolescents – Baseline findings
 - Miguel-Angel Núñez Rivera: Determinantes Sociales de la Salud Mental Adolescente: Estudio desde la especialidad del Trabajo Social Clínico en Chile
 - Georgia Rose: Adolescent Mental Health: The Rise and Fall
 - Sonia Taneja: The health impact of psychosocial experiences and social support among transgender adolescents and young adults in India: a qualitative exploration
-

DAY 3 • MAY 15

13TH IAAH WORLD CONGRESS ON ADOLESCENT HEALTH
BEYOND AWARENESS... RESILIENCE, REIMAGINING, RESPONDING
TRELAWNY, JAMAICA, MAY 13-15, 2026

ORAL PRESENTATIONS

1:45 PM - 3:15 PM

Policy and Health Promotion

- Guisella Magaly Ascate Kana: Framework for redesigning management and public policy on adolescent pregnancy prevention and integral adolescent development in Peru
 - Sonja Caffè: Lessons learned from twenty years implementation in Latin America of a parenting intervention for adolescents
 - Travonne Edwards: Disentangling the contradictions between Supreme Court's definition of reasonable force and child protection practices for Black families reported for physical abuse
 - Syed Hubbe Ali: Mainstreaming Road safety for adolescents and youth in India
 - Risa Turetsky: Health & Well-being Priorities of National and Regional Commitments Made to the 2023 Global Agenda for Action for Adolescents
-

DAY 3 • MAY 15